

Vaccines for Cats

Vaccinations your cat may need

DISEASE	DISEASE FACTS	NOTES
Panleukopenia virus (Feline Distemper) (intestines, bone marrow, brain)	Clinical Signs: Seizures, pneumonia, in coordination with diarrhea in kittens. Important Facts: Highly contagious; Most common cause of seizures in young kittens; Commonly fatal.
Rhinotracheitis (Feline Herpes virus) (eyes, nose)	Clinical Signs: Respiratory signs (runny nose, cloudy eyes, sneezing or cough), fever, loss of appetite. Important Facts: Very common respiratory disease of cats; Can lead to chronic disease; Occasionally severe.
Feline Calicivirus (FCV) (mouth, lungs, nose)	Clinical Signs: Oral ulcers, Nasal discharge, Respiratory disease. Important Facts: Can mutate easily, allowing for new strains of the disease to emerge; Most common form of disease is respiratory; Can lead to chronic disease; May cause organ failure; Although rare can be fatal.
Rabies (brain)	Clinical Signs: Neurological signs (seizures); Uncontrolled aggression and/or progressive paralysis. Important Facts: Transmitted primarily by infected wild animals via a bite wound; All mammals susceptible; Effects people too; Fatal.

Vaccinations your cat may need

DISEASE	DISEASE FACTS	NOTES
Feline Leukemia virus (FeLV) (spleen, lymph nodes, intestines, bladder, bone marrow, salivary glands)	Clinical Signs: Non-specific signs of persistent debilitating disease, Chronic infections may result in various cancers and anemias. Important Facts: Contagious; Cancer; Chronic immune system dysfunction; Can result in death due to secondary disease.
Feline Chlamydia	Important Facts: Mild upper respiratory infection, affects mucous membranes of eyes; increased risk of infection when boarding.
Feline Immunodeficiency virus (FIV)	Clinical Signs: Immune system suppression; Chronic susceptibility to other infections. Important Facts: Contagious, caused by retrovirus related to Human Immunodeficiency Virus (HIV); Causes feline AIDS (not the same virus that causes human AIDS). There is no effective treatment for feline AIDS.	